"KISSING GIRLS" AT THE COLUMBIA.

Sam Howe will bring his Klesing irls to the Columbia Theatre and preat a two-act burlesque called "The Kissing Maid." The first act is laid in the palace of the Khedive at Calro and the second shows a cafe in Paris, dur-ing the action of which a cab-aret show is given. Mr. Howe will appear in his well known impersonation of the Hebrew capital-ist, Ikey Umsky. Incidental to the performance there will be a vaudeville frogramme. The supporting company performance there will be a vaudeville frogramme. The supporting company includes Eva Mull, Margaret Flavin, Charles Moran, Vega Desmond, Stephanie Anderson, Harry Prescott, Anthony Cortelli, Butler Manderville, Al Parson, Ed Smith, Earl Wood, Fred lith, Ned Silvery and a large chorus of girls. An exhibition of all forms of dancing will be given.

"THE PRINCESS PAT" GOES MERRILY ON.

"The Princess Pat," the Henry Bloscom-Victor Herbert comic opera at the Cort Theatre, is nearing its one hun-dredth performance, and there is every dredth performance, and there is every reason to believe it will pass the third century mark before the engagement terminates. The cast includes Eleanor Painter, Sam B. Hardy, Al Shean, Alexander Clark, Joseph R. Lectora, Robert Ober, Louis Casavant, Martin Haydon, Eva Fallon, Leonora Novasio, Ralph Riggs and Katharine Witchie.

"MONTE CARLO GIRLS" OLYMPIC'S ATTRACTION.

The Monte Carlo Girls will be seen at the Olympic Theatre. The company is headed by Harry Welsh, Hebrew comedian, and includes among its other members Mabel White, Margaret Marlow, Dolly Morrissey, Fred Binder, James Francis and Bobby Owens. The two buriettas are called "Izzie the Bleuth" and "Izzie at Monte Carlo."

HOLIDAY NOVELTIES AT THE HIPPODROME.

The Hippodrome will bring Christ-mas delight to thousands this coming week. R. H. Burnside, who rules the stage, will provide special holiday nov-cides for "Hip. Hip Hooray!" which will appeal to children. This Sunday, in addition to the customary Sousa icert, a mammoth all-star Christmas Fund benefit will be given

"TREASURE ISLAND" IN FOR LONG RUN. girls.

Treasure Island," at the Punch and Judy Theatre, has settled down for a run. Charles Hopkins is enjoying the experience which sometimes comes to the man who has the courage of his convictions. Nearly every theatrical producer the world over was certain that no play could be made out of Stevenson's story of pirates and gold which would last a fortnight, owing to the lack of love interest in the story. Now that "Treasure Island" is an established success, wiseacres are saying to Mr. Hopkins, "I toid you so."

It is form Missouri. But that shan't why he has to be shown—on the screen.

Virginia Pearson of the Vitagraph is to take a hundred poor children to a theatre Christmas Day, and will load them down with candy. Three hundred Jacksenville society people took part in a ballroom scene for the Gaumont recently. Now about 199 of them want to be movie stars. In the third chapter of the Signal Film Corporation's Railroad serial, will be released Dec. 27.
